TOUR 7*SOUTHWOLD & SUMMER THEATRE
SATURDAY 15th JULY 2017

This trip is being organised by Probus2. As the play doesn't start until 17:00, you will have at least five hours to enjoy Southwold itself at your leisure.

This year's play is Communicating Doors by Alan Ayckbourn. When Phoebe is summoned to the hotel suite of master criminal Reece, she has little idea of the hot water she is getting into. A pawn in the struggle for power between Reece and his chief lieutenant Julian, Phoebe can only escape them by using the communicating door to the adjacent suite. But she travels a whole lot further than she can possibly imagine. After meeting Reece's second wife, Ruella, she embarks on a race against time to prevent Julian from killing Ruelia - again.

Fares: (Including theatre ticket): Adult/Senior/Child: £22.00

Timings: Dep: 10.30 Back by: 20:30

TOUR 8*BLUE BADGE GUIDED TOUR
WEDNESDAY 20th SEPTEMBER 2017

This tour will explore Essex's associations with transport, eg Cycling (Olympics/Hadleigh Castle), aeroplanes (driving past Southend Airport) and concluding at Stow Maries (First World War aircraft).

We first call at the English Heritage site of Hadleigh Castle to visit the romantic ruins of a royal castle overlooking the Essex marshes. Here we are booked in at the Salvation Army tea rooms for a tea/coffee stop plus a muffin or slice of cake, included in the fare.

We then travel across the area on a tales tour, driving past Southend Airport before arriving at Battlesbridge Antiques Centre for lunch. As well as 80+ antique dealers on the site, there is a pub and a couple of tea rooms, providing a choice of where to eat.

After lunch we head off for Stow Maries, the WW1 airfield celebrating its centenary this year. There is plenty to explore at this fascinating site, including the museum full of interactive displays & objects, in the backdrop of production and replica WW1 planes. We have booked a cream tea here, also included in the fare.
